OFF FLOATING DEBT. July 12.—[Exclusive] The Old Dominion Company, controlled by the Board of Directors, has started the floating debt of $300,000. About $1,250,000 has been expended in the plant and any remaining amount will be spread over the debt.

THE FARFADET NOT YET RAISED. BIZERTA (Tunis) July 12.—Minister of Maritime Affairs left Bizerta for Paris today, after a final visit to the spot where efforts are still being made to raise the submarine boat Farfadet. Admiral Jules, who is in charge of the work, said that it might be several days before the submarine could be brought to the surface, owing to the difficulty of passing hawsers beneath the boat, which is deeply imbedded in mud. The Minister thanked the French for their help in the rescue of the crew. The Farfadet was raised from the bottom of the sea on July 10, and the boat was secured to the dock. The latter is now being emptied with a view to lifting it to the surface.

"I have no salary," he replied. "It has not yet been fixed by the Board of Directors, and is a matter for future adjustment."

Moguls Dodging the Equitable.

Senator Depew is Out With an Explanation Which Doesn't Explain.

Morton Slashes Salaries to the Tune of One Hundred Thousand Yearly.

Banker Schiff Declares Records of Insurance Company Must be False.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

P ARIS, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Depew said today that he had placed his resignation as a director of the Equitable Life in the hands of Morton, several days before he left America. Regarding the loan to the Depew Land Improvement Company, he said:

"The newspapers state I secured a loan of $250,000 on property appraised at $150,000 from the Equitable. I had nothing to do with securing the loan. It was made under the rules of the Equitable on report of Equitable appraisers on the property, and that report must have shown that $250,000 was only 60 per cent. of the property's value in their judgment, or the loan could not have passed."

"In the application for the loan, President Welch would never have permitted misrepresentation of the value of the property. I became a stockholder five years after the company was organized."

N EW YORK, July 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Following the astounding revelations of the millions in graft contained in the report of Insurance Commissioner Hendricks comes the disposition of men high in finance to "get from under." A poll of the Legislature at Albany, tonight, showed that two-thirds of the members were in favor of a thorough investigation of the business of the Equitable and other great insurance societies.

One of the sensational developments of the day was a special cable to the World from United States Senator Depew, in which he declares he is out of the Equitable; has resigned, but only because he is 73 years old, and is getting rid of a lot of jobs like that. Depew declares that the Depew Land Company, if properly managed, would have assets far in excess of indebtedness to the Equitable and all other debts besides. Depew is made a distinct feature of the Equitable news budget, the genial Senator being caricatured unmercifully as the "Fallen Peach," "Besmirched Angel," etc., etc.

Ex-Secretary Morton, who will be formally elected president of the Equitable tomorrow, began slashing salaries with a vengeance today. He issued an order that, beginning with August 1, all the salaries of more than $15,000 a year should be cut 20 per cent; all between $9000 and $15,000, 15 per cent; and all between $2500 and $9000 10 per cent. There are five persons in the 20 per cent. classification, whose salaries will be as follows: Vice-president Tarbell, $60,000; Vice-president Wilson, $30,000; Comptroller Jordan, $35,000; Secretary William Alexander, $25,000, and Actuary Van Ciss, $17,500.

The 15-per-cent. class are Cashier Murray, $15,000; Auditor Jackson, $12,500; Miss Amendt, assistant to Mr. Tarbell, $12,000; Assistant Actuary Maine, $12,000, and Renewal Manager Brophy, $9,000.

Nine lesser officials are in the 10-per-cent. class. These reductions will save about $100,000 a year, to which are added the $100,000 salaries of President Alexander and Vice-president Hyde and the $30,000 salary of Vice-president McIntyre, which have been cut off by resignations. Some very large salaries in the medical department are being adjusted.

"What is your salary, and is it affected by this reduction?" was asked of Morton.

"I have no salary," he replied. "It has not yet been fixed by the Board of Directors, and is a matter for future adjustment."

No announcement has been made of the salaries to be paid the three

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] CLEVELAND (O.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Word reached this city tonight from Cleveland that John D. Rockefeller and other members of the family are shortly to take action against McClure's magazine for an article published from the pen of Miss Ida Tarbell, in which Rockefeller's father was pictured as being a convivial quack doctor, a wandering merchant, a hanger-on at taverns and an associate of horse-thieves. Frank Rockefeller, who lives in Cleveland, has been very bitter over what he terms the unwarranted and cruel attack, and has led the movement to vindicate his father's name. It is estimated that McClure's will be given an ultimatum, either to print a retraction or stand a suit for criminal libel.

He said he lost his fight with Rockefeller in court, but he was robbed by a man whom he considered his friend. He is very bitter toward Rockefell.

ELKS PARADE IN RAIN.

FIFTY THOUSAND MEMBERS OF THE ORDER TREAT Buffalo to Big Sight—Den- ver Gets Next Reunion.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] BUFFALO, July 12.—The twentieth annual reunion of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will be held in Denver in 1906. Perry of Denver led the winning fight. Denver received twice as many votes as Dallas, which made a strong fight, led by William H. Atwell, United States Attorney there. Atlantic City had a new supporter.

Early in the day the whole city was astir, preparing for the great parade. It is estimated that 50,000 Elks marched over the city in drizzling rain, but the streets were lined with an eager throng that had to be held in check by wires along the entire line of march.

Great plans had been made to make the parade memorable in the history of Elksdom. Many of the individual lodges had spent as high as $5000 for their costumes and outfit for the occasion, each bent on capturing the prizes offered for the best showing.

The marchers were garbed in costumes of all kinds, unique designs and with gorgeously decorated floats, and trophies of surprising and amusing character, combined to make the parade the most picturesque ever held in the history of the city. All stores and business houses were closed during the parade, and 'neither suspended publication of one edition to allow employees to view the pageant.

RUSSIAN CAPTAIN TOOK DNEIPER.
RELEASED CREW OF ST. KILD.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

MARSEILLE, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is stated that when the Russian converted cruiser Dneiper arrived at Port Said, with the crew of the British steamer St. Kilda, which the Dneiper had sunk, the British complained to their Consul that the captain of the Dneiper was determined to take them to Russia. The Consul, accompanied by the commanders of the British cruisers Lancaster and Suffolk, and the Dneiper, told the captain that the British crews on board be liberated. The captain of the Dneiper rudely refused the request, whereupon the Consul informed him that if they were not released within one hour special measures would be taken. The Consul and the officers accompanying him then left the Russian warship.

The British crew, however, had hoisted their anchor and swung around, ready to approach the Dneiper. This hint was sufficient for the Russian captain, who instantly sent the St. Kilda's crew ashore. They were brought here on a Peninsular and Oriental liner steamer.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 12.—Strong influences were brought to bear on Emperor Nicholas to induce him to replace Muravieff, though the Ambassador has taken passage on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, sailing from Cherbourg July 26.

The Russian newspapers whose criticism compelled Muravieff to relinquish the portfolio of justice attacked him with great savagery, saying he was utterly unqualified to conduct such important negotiations, and the Foreign Office has all along been supposed to share a similar view. The peace party at court did its utmost to secure the recall of Muravieff, under the belief that his conduct of the negotiations would be sure to lead to unfortunate complications, if not to complete wreck of the hopes of peace.

While Witte may not head the Washington mission, Pokotilloff, Russian Minister to China, Witte's right-hand man, may have the position.

It is said the Emperor's attitude toward Muravieff was apparent Monday when he received the latter coldly and remarked that he did not believe his health would stand the strain of a long trip to China. The Emperor's estimation was of a character not to be disregarded. Moreover, according to a usually reliable authority, the Emperor, when he received Minister Lamond in audience yesterday, definitely indicated the negotiations prepared for Muravieff's guidance, and during the evening it was equally significant that the Foreign Minister made it a point to tell a foreign Ambassador he called that Muravieff's health was not good.

The newspaper criticism of Muravieff may result in a duel between Skalnikov of the Novoye Vremya and Prince Oukontomsky, editor of the St. Petersburg Vremya.

Muravieff, not sparing in his attacks on Skalnikov, personally took Skalnikov, personally to task in the Vladiomost, whereupon Skalnikov assailed Prince Oukontomsky in fashion the Prince can hardly overlook.

The Associated Press is informed by friends of Muravieff that the Ambassador fully recognized the difficulty and thanklessness of the role of negotiating a treaty, and that he welcomed the circumstances, and that he welcomed relief from the disagreeable task.

Notable Speech on "Corporations" by the Chicago Judge—Instinct of Independent Manhood Finding No Field for Exercise.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.

PUT IN BAY, (O.) July 12.—Five hundred representatives of the Ohio bar, including many eminent jurists of the State, assembled here today for the annual session of the State Bar Association. The feature was the address of Judge Peter Grosscup of Chicago, whose subject was "The Corporation Problem, the Lawyer's Part in Its Solution." He said, in part:

The great corporate problem before the American people is not how to wipe out the new domain of property represented by the corporation; nor how to hinder or hamper it; nor how to take it over into national proprietorship; nor simply, to get it into those who have already come into its proprietorship deal fairly and benevolently with the people, as the great proprietors in the monarchies of Europe might be required to deal fairly with their people.

The great problem, that confronts the statesmanship of this day, like that which confronted the statesmanship that had to deal with the public land domain, is how to provide the ownership of this new domain; how to widen and deepen the public interest in this new domain; how to insure that the public interest, in this new domain, how to avert a war into the age that is to come, losing nothing overboard from the age that is passing; but with everything aboard so really republicanized that in the public mind there will be no feeling of wonder, but a sense of the great opportunities for an individual career, that our laws are supposed to furnish, the field is not open to all alike.

It is not the appetite for the men and women of the world for good that creates our problem. It is not their wish for entertainment or change. What creates our problem is that under present corporate policies the instinct of independent manhood, the instinct that characterizes us as a nation, finds no field for exercise. And what confronts us is to find a way that will, with reasonable security, open to this instinct the whole domain of industrial proprietorship.

"I do not expect that way to be found

It is said the Emperor's attitude toward Muravieff was apparent Monday when he received the latter coldly and remarked that he did not believe his health would stand the strain of a long trip to China. The Emperor's estimation was of a character not to be disregarded. Moreover, according to a usually reliable authority, the Emperor, when he received Minister Lamond in audience yesterday, definitely indicated the negotiations prepared for Muravieff's guidance, and during the evening it was equally significant that the Foreign Minister made it a point to tell a foreign Ambassador he called that Muravieff's health was not good.

The Russian newspapers whose criticism compelled Muravieff to relinquish the portfolio of justice attacked him with great savagery, saying he was utterly unqualified to conduct such important negotiations, and the Foreign Office has all along been supposed to share a similar view. The peace party at court did its utmost to secure the recall of Muravieff, under the belief that his conduct of the negotiations would be sure to lead to unfortunate complications, if not to complete wreck of the hopes of peace.

While Witte may not head the Washington mission, Pokotilloff, Russian Minister to China, Witte's right-hand man, may have the position.

LIVES SAVED
BY GUM SHOES.Former Los Angeles Officer

Lightning on Mt. Wilson.Collins Turns up in Victoria.
San Quentin Sensation.BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
SEATTLE (Wash.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George L. Berg, former police sergeant of Los Angeles, and wife, have returned to their home in Seattle after a most perilous experience at the summit of Mt. Lincoln. Their rubber shoes were all that saved them from them and death by lightning.

Berg has taken up landscape painting as his vocation since leaving Los Angeles, two years ago, and is in the habit of making frequent trips into the western wilderness to paint scenery. Two months ago he and Mrs. Berg started on an eastern tour to view the mountains and visit the big art galleries of Washington, New York and Chicago.

Returning by the Great Northern, they stopped in Montana to do some sketching in picturesque McDonald Lake country, in the heart of the Rocky Mountains. One day last week they ascended Mt. Lincoln, but had no sooner reached the summit than a violent storm broke. Struggling to the snow level to seek shelter, they had to wade through a precipice two thousand feet high, where a false step meant a plunge into the depth of the snow below and oblivion.

The wind was so furious at this point they were in momentary danger of being swept into the abyss. Failing to make progress, impossible, they clung to the cliff to await the end of the storm. Berg had with him an umbrella, which he succeeded in saving from his right hand to protect them from the rain and sleet. He had to leave the umbrella encased in ice to prevent her being lost.

GAME DEAFENING CRASH.

At the moment there came a deafening roar of thunder and a blinding flash of lightning that completely enveloped them for a moment. The lightning, attracted by the steel ribs of the umbrella, passed down through Berg's arm, body and right leg, but the blow he had on broke the current and prevented a ground circuit, so doubt, would have proved fatal.

Berg also had on rubber boots which formed a ground circuit through his body. He was terribly scorched and lost the use of his right leg for some time before either relief or medical treatment could be had.

Edward Y. Berg, a resident of Upper Lake, was stung by a honey bee recently on his leg. Blood poisoning set in and amputation was necessary to save his life.

Martin Powers Tuesday fell a distance of twelve feet through a trap door in the loft of a barn on the corner of Eddy and Van Ness avenue, San Francisco, and was severely injured.

While workers were engaged yesterday in excavating an old wall of the Glen building in Baltimore, the wall suddenly collapsed, killing one laborer and seriously injuring another.

In the laundry of Hotel Bowles, Central avenue, San Francisco, the boiler exploded yesterday. The building was wrecked, a number of employees injured and Henry Monroe badly hurt.

A large party of officials headed by Senator Vinton L. Smith for the Bowles yesterday to represent France in the negotiations for a new treaty of commerce between France and Russia.

An unknown young man jumped from an airplane yesterday shortly after midnight. Tuesday night he was drowned. He left on the deck a bare bearing the name of B. B. Bowen.

Reports from Lick Observatory are that the sun is approaching a wide front, has approached no more and is apparently dying out. It is burning southerly and has made no approach westerly toward the summit.

But little business was transacted at the meetings of the societies of天文, as shown yesterday. There were 629 men and 438 women in the institution. Money received from paid patients in June was $3000, and the one thing above all others is speed.

"Today, I offered an agent for a ship to San Francisco to get me to New York to Southampton. In five days, provided the company would guarantee a bonus of $10,000 to get me there.

ALL SORTS OF CALLERS.

"Today, I have been called upon by patent-medicine manufacturers, almanac promoters, submarine-boat builders, widows with and without large families, boys out of work and grafters with a thousand flimsy schemes. A few of them asked me and a large percentage of them were friends of mine."

"How much for the cigar boy?" All right, then, I guess we will take the entire box: it's a slight saving to buy them in chunks.

"Somebody has got the impression that I am working on my last $100, but to assure you that I have at least that much, take a peek at the bundle and have another drink with Scotty."

"Mr. Connell of the Santa Fé will bear me out that I paid for my train to Chicago, and that I am trying to get another fast fly to New York. At present I have just $31,000 left to spend but I guess that will be enough."

That Scott has no real business in Chicago, except to buy a permanent residence, was the natural deduction from his attitude during the day. From morning until night he was close to representatives of various transportation lines, and invitations to various places of amusement were freely extended.

"I am sure that he has been offered him the freedom of their best accommodations, but all offers were refused.

Twenty-five passengers of the steamer Allianca, which arrived at New York Tuesday night from Colon, were sent to the Hospital of the Holy Name's Island for observation. The examining physicians found all had temperature above the normal, and it was decided to detain them, owing to the prevalence of yellow fever on the island.

Mohammed El Torres, the representative of the Sultan at Tangier for foreign affairs, has received information to the effect that the imperial ambassador was overthrown by a Moorish pretender near Uidai in the northeast of Morocco. The pretender escaped, leaving 180 men dead. The Sultan's troops captured many prisoners.

WASHINGTON.

IN BEHALF OF CHINESE.

Appeal from Portland Pleases the Government.

Labor Union Agitators Alone in Opposition.

Rumpus in Printing Office. Bonaparte's Tactics.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) News that the Portland Chamber of Commerce had adopted resolutions asking this government to make a new Chinese exclusion treaty with China, under which Chinese persons of distinction arriving here shall be treated with great consideration, was met with great satisfaction in Washington, as being one of the first steps to show that the people of the Pacific Coast are not solidly unreasonable.

Expressions that have recently reached us from the Coast tend to show what the eastern people have never before dreamed, that the only men unqualifiedly opposed to reason in dealing with the Chinese in that set of labor-union "agitators" who disgrace San Francisco.

THE PORTLAND LETTER.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

PORTLAND (Ore.) July 12.—In response to President Roosevelt's invitation to the commercial bodies of the Pacific Coast to express their views regarding the problem of Chinese exclusion or the restriction of immigration of Chinese to this country, President William D. Wheelwright of the Portland Chamber of Commerce has forwarded the following letter to the President:

THE PORTLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Portland (Ore.) July 1, 1906.

To the President: Noticing with interest the attention that is being paid to your administration to the relations between the United States and China at the present time, the Portland Chamber of Commerce is impelled to address you respectfully on the subject, being specially moved to this action by the more or less adverse opinion of the Pacific Coast is not only responsible for hostile legislation toward the Chinese in the past, but that it is still disposed (and to a greater extent than any other portion of the country) to make unreasonable demands on the government for the protection in the future. It is true that the citizens of California, more than thirty years ago, appealed to the general government for protection against an apparent danger of unknown and therefore possibly overwhelming proportions and that primary legislation to limit Chinese immigration was enacted in response to that appeal.

In those days the Pacific Coast was very sparsely populated and there was terror even in the minds of a majority of objects—a mysterious people, possessed of unknown possibilities for evil—suffice to the fear that, by force of overwhelming numbers, the standards of Christian and Anglo-Saxon civilization might be overthrown.

Such experiences since that time have shown that such fear was without warrant, that the Chinese have no desire to attain citizenship, that they attempt no part in the administration of affairs and that they have no influence on our legislation. Thus it comes to pass, we believe, that the Pacific Coast is now no more in favor of their exclusion than the Middle West, the East or the South, and it seems fitting that the commercial bodies of this section of the country should put their names to a movement initiating a new treaty with China, that shall provide for the removal of the exacting conditions that now attack the entrance into this country of their merchants, students and professionals, and for the absolute freedom of all Chinese residents.

The Portland Chamber of Commerce to visit their own land and return here, and for the admission during the next ten years of a number of male Chinese laborers that in any one year shall not exceed one-tenth of one per cent. of the population of this country. American labor has little apprehension of its own dignity and honor, as well as of its capabilities for improvement, but it raises objections to such limited Chinese immigration as that—amounting in ten years to less than one per cent. of our population—and thus endeavors to deprive the nation of the advantages to its own development not only in this country, but in the Hawaiian and Philippine Islands and Panama.

We beg to state that due publicity be given to your intentions in that regard as soon as practicable.

Very respectfully, your very obedient servants.

PORTLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

COTTON-LEAK INVESTIGATION.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—A new and interesting phase of the cotton-leak investigation was developed today through the publication of the letter of George C. Hubbard, president of the New York Cotton Exchange, addressed to the President, in which the writer desired the members of the exchange that he had been "greatly shocked" by the recent disclosures of venality in the Department of Agriculture, and requesting a full investigation of the methods which led to the corruption, with a view of preventing the possibility of recurrence.

That letter, it is believed here, to be the result of a secret conference between Secretary Wilson and Hubbard, in which the latter called upon the Secretary to make him a public apology, because he had some years ago been instrumental in attempting to illegalize and no notice had been given the suggestion. The Secretary wrote a tart reply in which he informed Hubbard that he owed him no debts in the light of having done his duty to the best of his ability, and that when he got anything that looked like facts, he promptly sent it to the secret-service officers to hunt down.

EXHAUSTIVE EXAMINATION.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The investigation that will be made by Assistant District Attorney Morgan H. Beach into the charges that there has been a leakage in the matter of preparing the government cotton statistics, will be far more exhaustive than that conducted by secret-service operators at the request of Secretary Wilson, and the attorney's order, which arrived at the New York customhouse today, provides that goods already imported shall not be sent back, but may be sold in this country. He orders, however, that cans of peas covered with sunflower oil, or any other oil, and similarly labeled so as to show this face, various strawberry jams shall bear a label reading "Artificially colored," and some canned mushrooms must be sold as "stems and scraps."

NEW YORK, July 12.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has sent out a circular letter in regard to a large amount of adulterated foodstuff imported since the pure-food law went into effect, and which have been held up because the Bureau of Chemistry of the department found that all kinds of adulteration had been practiced.

Secretary Wilson in this order modified the former one in which he declared that the goods must be sent to Europe. A number of the largest wholesale grocers in New York who were concerned in the importations made a strong case, pleading a misinterpretation of the letter.

And it seems to us that the objections of the laboring classes to the importation of Chinese in limited numbers are no more reasonable than the objections urged by the same classes in the past to the introduction of labor-saving machinery, which, as we all know, had no effect to degrade the labors, but, on the contrary, to make of him a better man than he was before. vast areas of territory on the Pacific Coast are undeveloped at the present time, and will no remain under present labor conditions; whereas, with the influx of only a few thousand immigrants that is now coming in on the Atlantic Coast, lands would be cleared and improved, public highways would be built in regions where there are no entire absence of good roads, and railroad construction would take a new activity. It cannot be fairly claimed that the Chinese would interfere with the American laborer in this work, because this work is not now performed by American or any other labor, save in a practically undone way. The doing of it would not only fail to affect injuriously the present satisfactory status of the American laborer, but would open wider and higher fields for his service. It is to be borne in mind that during that period and up to Date, the Chinese in the comparatively recent days were in existence, to the terms of which both nations had given their assent, and in renewing which will improve or decline according to whether the said relations are friendly or otherwise. While it is true that the exports from the Pacific Coast have materially increased during the past year, so that large quantities of its agricultural products have been marketed at remunerative prices and considerable amounts of manufactured goods have also gone forward to the benefit of eastern factories and southern planters. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, July 12.—The contest between the Panama Railroad Company and the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, under which the two for years enjoyed the exclusive privilege of handling railroad traffic on the Pacific side of the Isthmus, will terminate today. All carriers will be on a level to compete to furnish the services to tranship passengers.

In his recent report on the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, it was recommended that if the company did not wish to establish a first-class line between the important Pacific ports of the United States and Panama, it was suggested that no other was prepared to furnish the services to be provided by the Panama Mail. The company, it was recommended, should not make to induce some other to establish a first-class line between the important Pacific ports of the United States and Panama, in the event that no other was prepared to furnish the services to be provided by the Pan-

EXCELSIOR. DIRECTORS FIGHTING GOULD.

NEW YORK, July 13.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Herald this morning says that a bitter war is on between George Gould and the directors of the Wabash system over the payment of a million-dollar bonus by Gould without authorization to Washington E. Conners for negotiating the sale of the Wabash and Lake Erie. This is said to be the real bottom of the trouble between Gould and the railroads. It is said that Director Henry W. McHarg has already resigned and that a number of others will do so shortly.

The story brings to light much of the secret history of the great fight between the Goulds and the Pennsylvania-Wabash entry into Pittsburgh, where Gould seeks a generous share of the enormous tonnage of the United States Steel Corporation.

HUNDRED AND SIX MILES AN HOUR THE LIMIT.

Maximum of the Special Attained
East of Albuquerque, in Illinois
Fastest Mile This Side from Monrovia to Duarte—Salt Lake Trackage Problem Believed to be Solved

The highest maximum speed recorded for the Scott special was 106 miles an hour. The terrific burst was attained east of Albuquerque in the flight between Cannon and Juanita,
Ill., where 2.2 miles were covered in 24.5s. West of Albuquerque the fastest time officially recorded was 1.4
miles between Monrovia and Duarte, covered at the rate of 84 miles an hour.

Between Joliet and Lakeport a speed of 90 miles an hour was sustained for three miles.

Between Spearville and O'Farrell a speed of 85 miles per hour was maintained for 11.4 miles and the revised and officially correct time for the 22.4 miles between La Junta and Newell was 24.5 minutes, including all delays.

These are the official figures compiled by the management of the Santa Fe, and will stand as the records for the trip.

SITUATION CLEARING.

circles that even though the difference of the Santa Fe, Southern Pacific and Salt Lake have not yet been settled as

In the freight traffic offices of the the probable change of a successor to Gillett, who came to the agency only

SLAUGHTERS THE CREW.

Negro McGill Seizes the Schooner Olympia.

Shoots Down Man After Man and Scuttles Boat.

Leaves With Two Women and Murders One.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

NEW ORLEANS (La.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the bloodiest tragedies in the annals of crime, with robbery as its motive, occurred July 20, off the Honduras coast, ten miles from Cebu. Out of thirteen people on the schooner Olympia, twelve fell before the deadly aim of Robert McGill's rifle in his greed for gold. The sole survivor is a young woman, Elsie Morgan.

Robert McGill, a negro, whose father is a preacher in Cebu, heard the Olympia's captain had arranged a trip to buy cattle, and knew he had quite a large sum on board. This amounted to about $700, and was stowed in the captain's bunk. McGill plotted to stow himself away, take the money and escape in a dory. He got aboard, armed with a Winchester. When he thought the time was ripe, he emerged from his hiding place and killed the captain. The shot awakened the other crew. He ran on deck and called out and the men came up. Then he shot them down like dogs, one by one. The last man was ordered to scuttle the vessel, which he did. Then he fell, with a bullet in his heart.

McGill made the two women, Miss Morgan and Mrs. Rose, go into the dory and they pushed off from the sinking schooner. The negro then shot Mrs. Rose, and threw the body overboard. Then he shot Miss Morgan, but the bullet hit her in the arm. She jumped overboard, and he shot at her several times. Fearing her wounds would not last until she could reach shore, he swam back to the dory, as the negro said he would not harm her. When within an arm's length, the brute struck her a stunning blow. She floated with only her nose out of the water. The sinking ship was down, and the negro started toward the mainland. A searching party captured the negro, and he is condemned to die by torture.

SHOCK FROM SAN QUENTIN.

CRIMINAL CONVICT WRITES LETTER.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.

SACRAMENTO, July 12.—An insane convict at San Quentin has created excitement at Washington, D. C., by addressing a letter to the Uruguay Minister, in which he charges all manner of atrocities against the prison authorities, claiming that he has been sent to that institution to die. The man and that the San Francisco authorities, having discovered this, have made arrangements with the prison authorities to have him killed before his term expires.

He claims that when his wife and children came to visit him they were outraged by the guards and some 700 of the convicts. As he signed another name to the communication it was taken in earnest by the representatives of the Uruguay Minister, who asked Gov. Pardee for an explanation. The master to the naval authorities, who asked Gov. Pardee for an explanation.

Warden Tompkins, in replying to the Governor's letter, stated that the man's name is Francesco Gardelli and that he is undoubtedly insane on the subject of his wife and children, who are in Italy and have never been in California. He states that the man is seemingly sane on all other subjects and is a model prisoner or has been transferred to an asylum long ago.

All of the charges made in the letter are sensational in the extreme.

COLLINS IN VICTORIA.
SAYS HE WAS PERSECUTED.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.

VICTORIA (B. C.) July 12.—Attorney George D. Collins, wanted at San Francisco, Canada, and Mrs. Collins, are at the Driar's Hotel in the city, fugitives from the San Francisco police. Telegrams have been received by the local police asking them to arrest and extradite the fugitives. The police have not done so, as bigamy is not an extraditable offense. Chief Langley of Victoria has wired San Francisco to this effect. If a charge of an extraditable nature is preferred he will hold the man in custody.

Collins is north overland. In an interview given here he said he knew he could not be extradited from British Columbia for bigamy. During sixteen years he had made powerful enemies and had personal troubles with Dr. Young of the San Francisco Chronicle. He says he was the victim of a conspiracy and would not get justice in a Canadian court, so he decided to come to Canada.

WILL BE BOUGHT BACK.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—It is believed that Collins can be extradited for trial for alleged bigamy. It has been decided to indict him for perjury. Judge Lawyer summoned the grand jury to meet in special session tomorrow. It is said an indictment for perjury will be made at that time. Under the treaty with Canada, perjury is an extraditable offense. The indictment will be based on Collins's testimony that Charlotte Collins was not his wife. This information was given in the wife's suit for maintenance.

The outlaws held up and robbed six traveling men at the Briton Hotel at Winfield Sunday night and escaped. At 11 o'clock last night, Detective Calhoun encountered both of the outlaws on the street. Not being positive of their identity, Calhoun secured the City Marshal, and one of the robbed traveling men, when all three started into a carriage to search for the men. Early today they drove into a side street. The traveling man identified them, and the trio in the carriage were just in the act of making a stand when either Madigan or Chadburn opened fire. One of the men was shot through the heart, and the outlaws made their escape.

The town was aroused. The outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver, and started out of town.

Just as Madigan and Chadburn were opening the main street, the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire, killing five, including the sheriff. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet song brought Chadburn to the ground, shot the complaint of Inspector Ketcham of the Postoffice Department.

Accompanied by United States deputy marshals, Inspector James E. Sturman entered the bank armed with a warrant and proceeded to locate everything in the shape of books, literature, tickets and such other articles as were thought necessary to be used as evidence. A wagon backed up to the bank and the "bank" was transferred to the postoffice.

The Federal seizure warrant called for "all articles of literature, paper, tickets, books, etc., labeled or belonging to the Louisiana Banking Company, Louisiania State Loan and Trust Company, Victor T. Tamm & Co., Morgan & Co., Louis Gourdin, Imperial Banking Company, Imperial Bank and the Manhattan Exchange Bank."

The trial of the "bank" officials will come before the Federal court at the next session, in September. The articles confiscated will be introduced as evidence in the trial.

NOT GOOD LOOKING.
PLAINT OF A SUICIDE.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

ELIZABETH (N. Y.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Madeline King, daughter of the late Col. Rufus King, committed suicide at the home of her aunt, Mrs. D. P. Thomas, on West Avenue street, late last night by severing an artery in her wrist and turning on the gas in the bathroom, where she was found dead.

She was 30 years old, and became desirous of brooding over the fact that she was not a beautiful woman.

She had often been asked to explain as she looked in the mirror: "Oh, why am I not good looking like other girls?"

The family have made every effort to keep the suicide from being made public, as they consider it a family affair.

MORMON CURSE AND ITS CURE.

A Resume of the Situation in Utah—New Blood and Federal Action the Joint Solution—What Will Congress Do With Mormonism?

BY IRVING SAYFORD.

[STAFF CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

ARTICLE XL

SALT LAKE, July 10.—Because the foregoing articles have treated vigorously the manifold evils of Mormon rule in Utah, it must not be presumed that conditions in this State are wholly bad. It is one of the strangest anomalies to be met with in modern life that, while the middle of the American West, among a population otherwise comparable with our average, a church autocracy embodying the absolutism of the Middle Ages holds dominion over the hearts and minds of men.

That this should be incomprehensible to the everyday American, who has eyes to see and a mind to conduct, and I may add that it has been quite possible for your wideawake man from California, Alabama or Maine to "stop off" in Salt Lake on business, and come away without stumbling upon any such condition, is a fact which, as shrewd is the church to cast first impressions and sooth the minds of the Gentiles to lift the lid and give the squab-welcome newcomer a whiff. Like others, though they choose to put their feet from in company. They are sensitive of their one great community disengagement, and grossly inaccurate publications have helped to make them a little impotent of a scrutiny which others have not diletted.

The better to understand this baffling quietude, bear in mind that in all things the Mormon priesthood is devious. Its main motives being essentially materialistic, its vast yet concrete manifestations, as far as they go, being under ground, that there shall be no

Iron, Juab, Kane, Millard, Morgan, Piute, Rich, Salt Lake, San Juan, Sanpete, Sevier, Summit, Tooele, Uintah, Utah, Wasatch, Washington, Wayne and Weber. Together they maintain 288 civic offices from county representatives down to county surveyors.

In each one of twenty-three of these twenty-seven counties practically all of the civil offices are in the hands of the Mormon church. The four exceptions are Juab, Salt Lake, Summit and Weber, counties in which some offices are held by Gentiles.

(3.) The practice of polygamy is not only secretly and semi-secretly, but openly, in vogue throughout Utah, but continues to flourish for two reasons: first, because the Mormon hierarchy overawes the law, and prevents its enforcement by the officers of the church; second, the reluctance of Gentiles generally to antagonize the church by investigating prosecutions, giving testimony or in any way aiding in the bringing of polygamists to book.

(4.) In Utah, national, State and local, are under the thumb of the church, whose leaders are able at the very shortest notice to vote the bulk of the Mormon membership as a unit. When in the composition of the Mormon hierarchy, do not scruple to harter this balance of power from time to time as suits the church's own peculiar ends, whether the candidate in

Smith is in receipt annually of nearly $2,000,000 in 10 per cent. tithes from Mormons throughout the world. He does not have to add to his income as he does to the expenditure, or retention of a single cent of this his income; his acts are unquestionable, being in the Mormon scheme, the acts of God Himself.

The fact that President Smith five years ago, at the time of his ascending the Mormon throne, was the man of highest wealth with or business importance, and now is the head and front of more than twenty of the foremost industrial enterprises in Utah, and about Salt Lake, is the best single proof that he uses the tithing funds for the monopolization and exploitation of business. And the most prominent commercial projects acquired with church money and operated by the church governing body, are the city and urban street-car system of Salt Lake, the electric light and power output for Salt Lake and vicinity, the largest pleasure resort in Utah, (Salina Beach,) and a railroad connecting it with the capital, the great salt-mining industry adjacent to Salt Lake, the whole sugar manufacturing business of the intermountain country, and many other chief commercial enterprises. It is to be noted that he does not dare to rise up at whatever cost and damn his hierarchical traducers. Then those who enter into Utah to develop and share her manifold riches must be educated, educated and enlightened in the coming generation of "Saints" to the enormity of their allegiance, and sting them into a revolting sense of their thralldom, and get them out of the neck-yokes of superstition which shackles them in slavery to a weird and preposterous church.

(5.) Business and private independence on the part of the majority of the non-Mormons in Utah, is held subject to the approval of the church. That is to say, boycott and ostracism are the prices to be paid for open hostility to the reign of the Mormon lords. Gentle merchants roughly speaking, derive 20 per cent. of their customers from the Mormons. In 20 per cent. more than represents their profit, and it is taken from them that must do business at a loss. That means ruin. If a Gentle grocer were to institute polygamy proceedings under the State laws against a member of the Mormon church, a following business would speedily follow for his order of the church rulers his Mormon trade would be at once withdrawn.

If a Gentle lawyer were to undertake the prosecution of a case against the church, he would at once become a marked and in all probability a doomed man. All Mormons would shun his services, and most Gentiles would follow suit, for of a certainty the presence of Mormons on any jury before which he should conduct a future case would spell defeat for his client.

If a Gentleman were to undertake the prosecution of a case against the church, he would at once become a marked and in all probability a doomed man. All Mormons would shun his services, and most Gentiles would follow suit, for of a certainty the presence of Mormons on any jury before which he should conduct a future case would spell defeat for his client.

A study of the testimony alone given by President Joseph F. Smith before the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, ought to convince any reasonable man or woman that the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints is an institution violative of the principles of republican government and essentially anarchistic toward the government of the United States.

I am willing to put aside the polygamy phase of Mormonism (which Presidents Smith impudently and outrageously asserts to be a divine right) and to waive the shattered pedigree of decency and loyalty whose fragments litter all Utah and contaminate half a dozen other States and Territories, and stand alone on the doctrine and teaching of the Mormon church that government by that church is fundamentally superior to government by our country and eventually must triumph over the dissolution of the Union: I am willing to freely concede that the sins from their ecclesiastical traitorism and fanatical anomalies the body of the Mormon people are law-abiding, thrifty and capable; moral in the vulgar sense and truthful except in defense of their faith; and that the Mormon church is the only attribute I am willing to seal them against the one self-luminary truth that a faithful member of the Mormon church cannot be a loyal citizen of the United States—and to await the verdict that inevitably must fall.

WILL CONGRESS ACT?

Some years ago when Utah was still a Territory, Congress outlawed the Mormon practice for their transgressions, took away from them their right of ballot, declared their church property forfeited to the government and dealt out special punishment to many of the most notorious of them in the form of penitentiary terms.

I believe the time has come for another—and, I hope, a last—interference by Washington. There is now before the Senate Committee on Judiciary a resolution looking to an amendment of the Constitution of the United States embodying in the election laws an oath to be taken by the prospective voter that he is neither a polygamist nor a member of any church or organization whose teachings are violative of the Constitution of the United States or distasteful to the government thereof. Such a law was until recently in force in the State of Idaho, where live 22,000 Mormons; by hard begging and ready promises of political influence, while it will not easily break the rulers of the Mormon church succeeded in having this law repealed. The author of that law is the author of the similar resolution now in the hands of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, and is not prepared to declare that no personal motive entered into his offering of it; but that consideration could only weakly, and in no wise vitally, bear upon the pressing need of Federal interference in Utah.

It is a fact that State courts cannot, will not, do not, cope with the crimes of the Mormons: it is a fact that the only time in Utah's history when a grand jury investigated the unlawful acts performed under the protection and sanction of the Mormon church was not a farce was when such investigation was being made by a Federal instead of a State grand jury. Federal governors compelled the facts, Federal grand juries signed the indictments, and Federal judges condemned to Federal penitentiaries scores of influential Mormons guilty of notorious acts.

A constitutional amendment placing the punishment of polygamy under Federal control in all States and Territories would hamstring the Mormon church.

A joint resolution of Congress denying the right of any Federal office to any and every member of any organization teaching against the principles of this government, would break the neck of the Mormon hierarchy.

The safety and integrity of the nation demand that some such action be undertaken. With the Mormon church owning the support of five United States Senators and commanding the sympathy of at least five more, it is time for the country to call a halt.

HELP FROM OUTSIDE.

From two main sources help must come to Utah—the wide world and Washington.

Utah is a State to make money in.

Despite the fearful incubus of an insincere and immoral priesthood holding ascendancy over her social, political and commercial life, the agents of the Mormon hierarchy, who have been a home of prosperity to thousands of Gentiles and will be a palace of plenty to thousands more.

RAN AWAY WITH BRIDAL COUPLE.

DELUGE OF RICE AND SHOES FRIGHTENS HORSES.

Team Dashed Madly Down Grand Avenue Toward Steep Hill and Is Turned in Nisk of Time—Carriage Wrecked, Bride and Groom Thrown Out, Driver Injured.

While on their way to pass their honeymoon at Catalina Island, Harold C. Chapin and wife, bride and groom of an hour, were victims of a runaway accident last night in which they narrowly escaped with their lives.

The horses attached to their carriage became frightened immediately after the bridal party left the Hotel Lovelace, where the wedding ceremony was performed, and ran down Grand avenue toward the sharp decline beyond Fourth street. At the corner of the driver, Joe Farnie, pulled the animals up sharply just in time to turn them west on Hill street.

Near Bunker Hill avenue the horses crashed into the sidewalk, upsetting the vehicle and throwing out the occupants. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin were severely bruised and scratched, but were not seriously injured. McGee fared worse, as the carriage tipped over on him. His injury, though painful, was not serious. The carriage was wrecked.

Harold Chapin is an employee of Barker Bros., and his bride was Miss Louise Hage of Bay City, Mich., which was Mr. Chapin's former home. They were sweethearts when they married, and while Miss Hage journeyed to Los Angeles with her mother to wed the man of her choice.

The runaway was caused by the enthusiastic "send off" of the guests of the hotel, who rang bells, threw rice and old shoes and cheered lustily. The young couple were able to resume their journey last night.

Gives Whist Party.

Mr. John Clayton Smith of No. 260 La Salle avenue was hostess at a whist party on Tuesday afternoon, given in compliment to his wife, Mrs. John and Miss Martha Smith and Miss Sadie Smith of Cleveland, O. Red nasturtiums and their clinging foliage were utilized in the decorations for the library and Mamen Cochet roses ap-

LIBRARY NEEDS MORE MONEY.

DIRECTORS ASK LARGE INCREASE FOR NEW YEAR.

Would Pay Attendants Better Salaries and Strengthen Weak Departments—Provision Made for Cataloguing Books—Executive Session Considers Charges of Favoritism.

Last night's meeting of the Library Board was as calm as a session of the City Council without Spook Howton present.

An executive session was held, however, devoted to a consideration of better library service and a discussion of the charges of favoritism made by library patrons who think they have not had opportunities to draw books equal to those of other patrons.

Directors Dockweiler, Wright and MacSchutz were present. Dr. Brewster, in Portland, and Director Rodman is away on a jaunt with the Sierra Club.

On account of the difficulties over the library fund, which the directors supposed would have a $6000 surplus, but which Auditor Schwabe declares does not exist, the warrant was reduced for the payment of $500 for a library at Central avenue and Ortega street.

The citizens' association, which has maintained the branch library on West Main street, has given up its branch Main street for a period of two years at a rental of $15 a month. The year during which the expenses of this branch were to be paid by the East Side citizens, expired July 1, and will now be entirely sustained by the library board.

The board instructed the librarian to open a branch library at children's play-ground No. 1 as soon as practical, and to represent that the new branch at University, which opened last Monday night, has good attendance, and that thirty books were drawn the first day.

The most important matter before the board was the estimate for the new year. These gentlemen think they are making a modest demand when they present the schedule requiring over $87,000 for the running of the library.

The year's budget shows an expenditure of $11,250 for new books. For the new year the board asks $20,000, as it is claimed that several departments are very weak, notably the chemistry and the French and German departments.

Last year's salary list was something over $28,000. For the new year the board would expend in salaries $35,000. On the schedule adopted is $30,000 for making a new library at University, $10,000 for the rentals of rooms for the branch libraries.

The members of the board, who were present, are all men, laboring under the idea that the city government fully coming into its own and that through some means pecuniary its funds have been diverted to other channels.

Directors and composed of Directors Dockweiler, Wright and MacSchutz, committee and composed of Directors Dockweiler, Wright and MacSchutz, appointed to investigate conditions to ascertain just what amount is due the library fund under the provision of 4 cents on every dollar on taxes received from city property.

Miss Gleason was in attendance at last night's session, and during the entire meeting there was not the slightest reference to the recent internal upsets in the library department. The only thing mentioned that may have reference to Dockweiler several times to figures which "the former librarian" had given.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Possibly a Hold-up Man.

A fellow was booked at the Police Station yesterday afternoon under the name of John D. Dill, but it is not supposed to be his name. He is held as a drunk, but among his effects were a black silk handkerchief and a bottle of chloroform, which gives rise to the suspicion that he is a hold-up artist. He was in liquor when arrested, and when being led away from the dock, said, in a muddled way: "I'm no thief, though he had not been charged.

Civil Service Exam.

Those who wish to make applications for this examination can file them with the local secretary of the board, Frank C. Mulkey. Applications must all be in before July 24.

Ground Broken for Church.

Ground was broken yesterday morning for the First Presbyterian Church to be erected on the corner of East Fifty-first street and South Park avenue, on the property recently presented to the church by Henry E. Huntington. Rev. W. G. Palmer, pastor of the church, removed the spud spout of earth. Representatives from the board of trustees and from the session of the church were present. The ceremony was impressive. The church will cost about $5000, and will be completed about the first of November.

Capt. Auble, Patrolmen Boyd, Tyler and Walker, the local police and four members of the fire department, the crack baseball team of the northern city's finest, were locked in jail at Avalon yesterday afternoon. The Catalina band is in an imposing array, and when the bluecoats were bundled into one small cell, and the barred doors were closed and locked, they scarcely had room to turn around. In the history of the cabaret, it had held many prisoners. Constable Robinson and Justice Allen bagged the policemen and jailed them without assistance. The members of the party, who had been on the island for a two days' outing, were about to be locked up when the two officers invited them to the jail. No sooner were they inside than the doors were locked and they were told that they were prisoners. The officers then left them a little lecture on the restaurant's conduct while the island and then permitted them to depart after each man had promised to be good.

Representatives from almost every city and town in Southern California were present and the gathering passed several important measures relative to the preventing of the spread of disease among animals. Additions were made by Dr. N. Morris, Territorial Veterinarian of Arizona, and Dr. M. Keen, State Veterinarian of California.

Provision was made for experiments in the tuberculin test as a preventive against the spread of the disease in cattle, and the milk of the milk cows. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions to be presented to the city and town boards of health of Los Angeles county urging them to take stringent measures against the spread of the disease. The committee consisted of Dr. H. Richel, government meat inspector; Dr. G. Rowland, county stock inspector, and Dr. Whittlesey.

AT THE CITY HALL.

WANT CITY TO HELP UNION.

WALKING DELEGATES PROPOSE ELECTRICAL ORDINANCE.

Seek to Lobby Through the Council "Closed Shop" Scheme Giving a Monopoly of Electric Wiring to Union Labor—Pretty Graff of "Business Agents" Exposed.

Hidden beneath an exceedingly thin veneering of alleged philanthropy, the walking delegates of the local Wiremen's Union are making an effort to lobby a "closed-shop" scheme through the City Council.

The generosity of the union journeymen wiremen, as depicted by the salaried jawboners, almost surpasses the understanding. They have been so busyolini because the city has been losing money to it. Hence revenue, which the contractors should have paid, that they have volunteered to pay all the license tax themselves and thus save the electrical contractors from financial obligation.

As a further evidence of their coming desire to advance the welfare of the city, they ask that an examining board be appointed and that no wiremen who does not hold a certificate issued by that board be permitted to do any electrical wiring in the city. This is the philanthropic veneering.

But the union saint has come through his tawdry varnish and when the awsmen go before the Finance Committee tomorrow to explain their unanticipated generosity they will very likely find the committee unwilling to be outdone in the way of municipal loans.

The Council will probably decline to term: the union wiremen to make such a sacrifice, but will assure them that with the help of an occasional salaried jawboner, the city can worry along a little while yet under present conditions.

It was the advocacy of the appointment of a board of examining engineers that first exposed the trial of the union agitators. A board of examining engineers ago snatched the Plumbers Union to its front door on the city's throat. While it lasted the "business agents" of that union wore dials.

Here is the way the labor union takes advantage of the examining board: the first place every wireman working on any job in the city would have to carry a license issued by the examining board. This would at once give to the journeymen wiremen a monopoly of the electric wiring. Helpless would be excused by the examining engineers, the cost of wiring would be increased without a corresponding increase in efficiency, for there is a great deal of the preparatory work that a wireman can do just as well as a journeyman.

If not, but licensed men could work, it would be comparatively easy to tie up any job in the city by a strike. No job without a license could transact the business of a strike. A wireman could not come over from Pasadena and go to work: he would have no license. To secure that license would require probably a month's time.

During the last strike could the attacked contractor to lose out all his contracts.

Final business for the walking delegates!

The present license tax for electrical wiring is $100, a possible quarterly advance. A part of the scholars the walking delegates contemplate abolishing this license and collecting a tax from each piece of work done, to be paid when the permit is taken out and based on the number of outlets.

It would also be good business for the walking delegates.

It has long been a matter of contention in and about the City that all hundreds of jobs of electrical wiring are done in the city weekly for which no permits are issued. This is the way the examining engineers, who charge the owner of building for a permit that is never taken out. It is a species of petty theft in which the walking delegates participate. The only fly in the ointment is the fact that the workers on job like us are liable to be touched because the contractor has no license, so can generally be avoided by getting one union journeyman to take out a license and sign his name as contractor for hundreds of jobs with which he has nothing to do. But the day scheme would obviate the necessity for the expenditure of this $25 a year.

Suspicion was first directed to the philanthropic license amendment proposed by the union wiremen, under assumed names, of course, by the persistent presence of the president and his chief aide, Walter H. Hans, in the City Hall corridors, who appeared unduly interested in the electrical ordinance.

It required very little investigation to expose the labor union scheme, which they are trying to foist on the city.

posed amendment to the electrical ordinance, which will come before the Finance Committee this afternoon, is the last frantic effort of the walking delegates to get some more easy money.

FOUL SEWAGE.

Summer weather has brought with it an unusual number of complaints to the street and health departments about the unsanitary condition of scores of city sewers.

A look at the records shows that no one section is favored in these complaints; they are general, coming from almost every part of the city. Many of them tell of odors almost metallic in density and so foul that even the sewer rats have given up and gone elsewhere.

Both the Street Superintendent and the Health Officer say that present conditions cannot be bettered until the outfall sewer and the internal systems are completed.

Judging from present indications that may come to the time that Bryan is elected President.

MRS. LACKEY GETS DIVORCE.

Yesterday was the fifth birthday of Robert Corbin Lackey, only child of V. Maude and Clinton R. Lackey, and the anniversary was celebrated by the mother in obtaining a divorce from her husband.

The parties were married in this city in September, 1904, and in July, 1906, he deserted her and moved to New Mexico, where he has been living at Visalia.

After the marriage the Lackeys moved to San Francisco, and there the husband had a great deal of attention to pay to his wife. Lackey took up with another woman, and lived with her as his wife in Tulare county.

Judge James granted the decree, after glancing through the depositions, which clearly showed the laxity of the man's morals during the period of his marriage.

LOWE GAS AGAIN.

PLENTY OF GAS—NO MONEY.

The Union Oil Company is again making an attempt to get a settlement for the long-standing account owing to the Independent Gas Company, one of the bunch of Lowe's iridescent dreams for getting the public's spare cash. For a long time the Union Oil Company supplied the Independent Gas Company with the Whittier oil, used in making gasoline, but that situation owing become so large that litigation had to be resorted to.

On January 18 last the Union obtained a judgment against the Independent Gas Company for $3525.94, and that is all the Union has been able to get. The Independent is executing the judgment, for the execution issued on the Union Oil Company was returned unsatisfied, and a new one had to be taken in order to save something from the wreck.

The Union has now begun suit against the Los Angeles Safe Deposit and Trust Company to recover the amount of the debt.

The building hall is now two stories high. Present two stories complete building a floor across it at the height of the railing of the present balcony. The upper half will be kept in the Council chamber and the lower half will be appropriated among the City Engineer, the City Attorney and the Municipal Board of Public Works.

The Building Superintendent is now working on an estimate of the cost of the proposed improvement. The work will probably be completed by the time the Municipal Board of Public Works goes into office.

A Funny Discovery.

The ludicrous bordered so closely on the serious in Justice Young's court yesterday morning, that everyone there had giggles for the remainder of the day. It all arose out of a mistake made in the suit of J. B. Claverie against Mary Annie Snyder and Verne G. Snyder.

Justice Young was perched on the bench waiting for a case to be called when the door opened and a lady and gentleman entered. The Justice had a wedding stated for 10:30, and imagining that the couple standing hesitatingly at the door were the anxious young people he ushered his judicial countenance and smilingly elicited their names in inquiry, whereupon they gracefully bowed toward his chambers.

The young lady blushingly came forward, while everyone stared at her and at the man who sheepishly followed.

A moment or two later Justice Young bobbed off the bench long enough to let the man out, but before he entered his chambers and assumed the judicial-clerical look proper for the occasion he discovered in short order that the lady and gentleman wouldn't submit. When told to stand up and join hands, he was taken aback to the request, and when he was told to stand up and join hands, he was taken aback to the request.

TRIBUTE TO AMASA COBB.

The report of the committee appointed by the Bar Association to draft suitable resolutions upon the decease of Amasa Cobb, a highly esteemed member of the bar, was filed yesterday.

In the preamble to the resolutions the following brief outline of the life of the deceased is set out: Born in the State of Illinois, September 27, 1822; admitted to the bar in the Supreme Court of Wisconsin in 1848; colonel of the Fifth Regiment of Wisconsin Volunteers during the Civil War; promoted to be brigadier-general; twice a member of Congress, afterward becoming a citizen of Nebraska and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of that state; a member of the bar of California, and died in Los Angeles on the 4th day of April, 1905, in the eighty-fourth year of his age.

W. T. Curi, one of the witnesses for the prosecution, stated that the auto dashed by the car at a "high rate of speed" his estimate being that it ran over the victim when he was running at "usual" speed.

When the prosecution rested its case, Attorney George S. McKeey for the defense, made a motion for dismissal on the ground that no wanton or criminal negligence had been shown on the part of the defendant. The motion was overruled.

The defense will place two or three witnesses on the stand at 9:15 o'clock this morning, and argument by counsel will be reached early in the day.

At their meeting yesterday, the directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, at the request of George W. Parsons, directed that the secretary address a letter to the Supervisors of Los Angeles, San Diego, San Bernardino, Riverside, Inyo and Kern counties in California and Lincoln, Nye and Mineral counties in Nevada, calling attention to the necessities, and to the resolutions passed by the chamber on two previous occasions, and urging that the time is now ripe for carrying the resolutions now made into effect. The attempt was made to pass new resolutions that is unnecessary, what is wanted is to carry those already passed into effect.

Ward board convened Mr. Parsons addressed the members, calling attention to their former action, and to the awful conditions existing at the time of the great water shortage.

The board voted to take action.

Another Phenomenal Clothing Sale for

Why We Bought Them

Our great outing suit sale a year ago was the greatest up to that time ever attempted in Los Angeles. More than one thousand suits were sold in six days. We have been asked a number of times this season, why we should have another outing suit sale. In response to many inquiries we wired to New York buying organization thirty days ago to look out for another big lot, equal, if not better than those last season. The result is that we secured the entire overproduction of the best maker of men's outing suits in New York who sells only high class clothing; and in order that his regular customers might not have cause for complaint, we had to agree not to advertise his name and to allow him to take off all labels and distinguishing marks. But we will say that identical suits are sold right here in Los Angeles in other stores from $15.00 to $20.00, though conservatively they are all excellent values at from $12.50 to $15.00. It certainly was a fortunate purchase for us, and will greatly overshadow last year's memorable outing suit sale.

Why You Should Buy Them

The particular reason why you should buy this particular line of outing suits is that no firm has ever offered or can offer such values in this city. You could not have more perfect fitting, better quality or more stylish, durable suits if you should pay your tailor $20.00 for them. They are in a large range of patterns and colorings; the materials Homespuns, plain and fancy Cheviots, Worsted and Tweeds. The coats are in single or double breasted style with broad shoulder effect; center or side vents, and are skeleton, one-quarter or one-half lined. Trousers have cuff bottoms, with spring hips and belt straps. They are in sizes from 33 to 48 for regulars and stout. The entire assortment of 1200 should not and will not last longer than three days selling. But naturally, it is to your interest to come early Thursday and get first selections while the assortments are complete. Remember, they are all priced at choice
